Activity: NSS Plastic Bag Free Day Campaign

On July 3, 2018, volunteers of the National Service Scheme (NSS) participated in a campaign to raise awareness about the adverse effects of plastic bags on the environment. The campaign was conducted in observance of Plastic Bag Free Day.

The volunteers assembled and were briefed about the objectives and strategies of the campaign. Armed with informational pamphlets and banners advocating for plastic bag reduction, the volunteers proceeded to various shops in the area.

At each shop visited, volunteers engaged with shopkeepers and customers, highlighting the environmental consequences of plastic bag usage and promoting the adoption of reusable alternatives. They distributed informational materials and encouraged individuals to join the movement towards a plastic-free environment.

The response from the community was generally positive, with many expressing support for the cause and pledging to reduce their reliance on plastic bags. Some shopkeepers even agreed to display signage discouraging plastic bag usage in their establishments.

Overall, the campaign was a success in spreading awareness and fostering dialogue about the need for sustainable practices. It served as a reminder of the collective responsibility we have towards protecting our planet for future generations.
